This new work, from the pen of Mrs. SOUTHWORTH, is a vivid picture of Lafe, Manners and Scenery in the Sunny South.
THE THRNE EEAUTIES is a story of touching pathos and absorbing interest, carrying with it a moral worthy to be inculcated. The character of Imogene Sammerfield is one of the most beautiful specimens of portrature we have ever met, in which all the elements that emobile and render lovely the female character are most happily combined. The present Talle is destined to be widely popular.
